

Challenges of Europe

Inclusion and Exclusion in Contemporary European Societies

Extra-curricular international (post) graduate course:
INTER UNIVERSITY CENTER DUBROVNIK, CROATIA
April 16 – 20 2012

Programme of the day: Tuesday, the 17th of April 2012

Theme of the day: 'Education'

Chair: Ladislav Rabusic (Masaryk University, Brno, Czech Republic)

09.15 - 10.30 Demographic and non-demographic challenges to education systems

Martin Kreidl (Masaryk University, Brno, Czech Republic)

Tomatoes: Deniz Şahin (Turkey)
Luuk Feijt (the Netherlands)
Report: Maja Ahmić (Bosnia-Herzegovina)

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee break

11.00 – 11.45 The Battle: Thesis

Debate

Kick-off: Bart van Steenberg
Report: Irina Kotenko (Russia)

11.45 – 12.00 Workshop Commercials

12.30 – 15.00 Lunch and preparations

15.00 - 17.30 Participant Presentations in Parallel Workshops (3x5)

Workshop presentations Tuesday, the 17th of April 2012

Workshop I: Needing institutions?

Chair: Wieger Bakker

Room: 2

Outsourcing social power: non-governmental implementation.

Dražen Hoffmann (Croatia)

Social exclusion as a consequence of media reporting: Serbian and Albanian Ethnic Stereotypes.

Nevena Kostadinović (Serbia)

Borders for social policy:
distrust in social institutions in the contemporary Ukrainian society.
Kateryna Tkachuk (Ukraine)

Let the right one in: cultural exclusion in the Dutch welfare state.
Wijnand Kerklaan (the Netherlands)

Defining quality: accreditation systems instead of social interaction?
Leonie Kuhlmann (the Netherlands)

Workshop II: Migration and exclusion

Chair: Paul Stubbs

Room: 3

How rules can lead to exclusion: civic stratification.

Josje ten Kate (the Netherlands)

Promoting the powerless: what role for the EU in recognising and supporting migrant care workers?

Hannah Burd (United Kingdom)

Unemployed and thus criminal

Markéta Blažejovská (Czech Republic)

A tale of two cities: inclusion and exclusion in Rotterdam and Gent.

Sanne van de Pol (the Netherlands)

Workshop III: Dealing with consequences of the economic crises & labour market

Chair: Ladislav Rabusic

Room: 4

Parental leave in the EU.

Cara Rutten (the Netherlands)

How the EU deals with unemployment: flexicurity as a soft power.

Swantje Falcke (Germany)

At a Limbo, Neither the Road to the Full Membership, Nor a Way Out of it.

What is left for Turkey?

Irmak Kurtulmuş (Turkey)

Happiness and Europe: implementing happiness measures on European level.

Ivan Belička (Slovakia)

Social exclusion by age: the Ukraine in comparative European perspective.

Tetiana Hryshyna (Ukraine)